

Four Levels of Reflection: Crisis in Russia and Animal Farm

Word/Phrase Level	The author quotes Marx's use of the phrase the "means of production" twice in paragraph six. Define what you think Marx means by the phrase and give an example.
Sentence Level	Paraphrase the bolded line from paragraph 7:  Communism would be a social form wherein Capitalism system would have ended and the working classes would be the sole beneficiary of the "fruits of their labour."
Paragraph Level	Explain what paragraph 6 discusses and why it is included in the article since Karl Marx was not Russian and was not in Russia in 1917.
Passage Level	How does Chapter One of Animal Farm represent both pre-revolutionary Russia and the idea of Marxism? Use details from both this article and Animal Farm to support your answer.	